FIRST AID PRACTICE FIELD.

Oh, there is agony of war
At home as well as far at sea.
At times I think my sufferings More
Than those who fight for liberty.
For now upon the floor I'm pro
Pretended victim of a raid, While Nellie binds me flesh and bone,
Acquiring skill in human aid.

With book and bandage now she comes,
A Red Cross student most intent.
All up and down my frame she thumps.
On finding all my pulses bent.
She looks on me with glowing eyes,
A source of problems to be met,
As on my quivering flesh she tries To tie a square-knot tourniquet.

Sometimes I think, so avid, she For practice in the nurses' skill, To her 't would very helpful be Were I to suffer hurt or ill.
She then could run with sterile lint, When first a cry for help I made,
With needle, bandages and splint, And prove the progress she has made.

I nightly pray 'twill never be,
But should the future bring the So near to us some night that she
To help the wounded has to go.
May they remember when she comes,
I gladly gave myself to pain,
And bore the pressure of her thumbs,
That lovely first aid nurse to train.

PENSIONS.

False teeth, glass eyes, wooden legs and moth balls are appearing these days in Congressmen's mail. They are inspired by the recent passage by Congress of a self-pensioning plan. If say some of their constituents, Congressmen are so old as to need pensions, they probably need some of the traditional properties of old age.

Of course the problem is not quite so simple as all that. There is an argument for enabling our representatives to feel independent of temptation. Many a Congressman or senator, defeated for re-election after long service at Washington, finds his business or law practice gone when he goes home, and not much prospect of building it up. After all, congressmen are people, and the idea of pensioning helpless old age is getting wide-spread.

Much of the opposition is due to the time when this project is brought up.
There is a suggestion of passing the measure when public attention is engaged elsewhere. Back in the Grant administration Congress won much odium from the so-called "back pay grab," when an increase of salary was voted to itself retroactively. It might not be a bad idea to postpone this congress-sional pension until it can get more discussion.

WOMEN'S UNIFORMS

There was quite a to-do about putting women in uniform, at first. People in authority thought it did something for morals and efficiency to have women workers in neat and efficient clothing—which it does—and that it made for pride in the work to have the uniform go with it.

On general principles, those points are well taken.
But another factor has entered the picture—that of getting enough woolen cloth for soldiers in cold weather, enough heavy cotton cloth for them in summer climates. If there has to be a choice, the boys must have the best. The girls can get along.

Insignia are becoming important. The armband which shows what group the girl belongs to is necessary. This can be made of materials which do not conflict with soldier needs.
Every woman who works in any war group should wear one when engaged in any defense activity.

A few uniforms worn by leaders spread the idea of the kind of clothing which is useful in any given task.
That and the armband are enough. Last year's sweater and slacks do very well for most work, anyhow.

Queer, isn't it, how the Nazi oil and axle grease freeze and the Russian don't? It must be because the Russian supplies are used to the climate.

"God grants liberty only to those who love it, and are always ready to guard and defend it." — Danie Webster.

AT IT AGAIN!
MEN NEEDED FOR DEFENSE GUARDS
OFFICER STATES

Able-bodied men between the ages of 18 and 50 are needed immediately by Headquarters Department and Company A of the 37th Infantry, Texas Defense Guards, to bring the units up to necessary strength and replace men taken by selective service, according to an announcement Wednesday by Major Festus A. Pierce.

He pointed out that the men must be able and willing to attend the hour and a half drill session held one night each week, and must not be employed in a defense industry or a vital department of the city or county government.

"Many men have been saying they would do anything they could to help their country. Here is their opportunity. We need them badly right now," Major Pierce asserted.

He also reported he had been authorized to form a new unit of the Defense Guards by the adjutant general's department, which has been designated as Company E, 37th Infantry, and assigned to Major Pierce's command.

Annual Banquet
Epworth League
Union Last Night

Members of the Corsicana Epworth League Union of the North Corsicana district, held their third annual banquet Tuesday night in the Municipal building of the First Methodist church.
Miss Mary Ellen Sutton, president of the Union, presided, and Dr. M. M. Chunn, pastor of the Central Methodist church in Fort Worth, was speaker for the evening.

Young people representing Methodist churches in the city and throughout a large part of the county, enjoyed the annual affair.

The long tables were decorated in a patriotic motif with red and blue streamers running the length of the white tablecloths. Red, white and blue candles and pot plants with red blossoms centered the tables. Behind the speakers' table were two flags, the American and Christian flags.

The Rev. R. O. Sory, district superintendent, gave the invocation.
Informal singing was the feature during the evening. The band and Rev. Ross Smith led the group in singing several songs.

Opens Program
Bob Mapples opened the entertainment features of the program by playing a medley of South American music on his accordion and playing three pla-nos, "The Night We Love,"
"The Shrine of St. Cecilia," and
"Chattanooga Choo Choo."

Miss Dorothy Wolens gave two readings, "The Church's Morning Sunshine Talk" and an English Lady's Impression of America.

Miss Vivian Rogers, student at the I.O.F. home, sang "Temple of Peace Harbor" and "My Wild Irish Rose." Benny Cook, another student, sang "My Marguerite" and "Elmer's Tune," and the duo concluded with a duet, "Song of Love." They were accompanied by Miss Mary Hoge, teacher, at the piano.

Rev. Mr. Chunn told his youthful listeners that although they are living in a world that seems dark and stormy, there will always be light and he urged the youth of today to be the lamp-lighters of the world. He emphasized the necessity for keeping laughter and joy in the world and in our everyday life.

Challenge to Young People Challenging the young people, Rev. Mr. Chunn reminded them that Jesus told us to "go out into the world" and live for Christ nobly. "Do not worry about the return trip," the speaker said.
"Just keep an altar in your heart and be proud of the fact that you can face the world as a Christian." Dr. P. E. Riley, pastor of the host church, dismissed the group.

Pastors attending included Dr.
Riley, Rev. and Mrs. A. A. Pen-cock, Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Sessions of Kerens, Rev. C. Lewis Tucker of Richmond, Rev. Ross Smith, Rev. D. R. McCauley of Rice. Superintendent W. T.
Norwood was a guest for the occasion.

Sutton, Betty Pritchett, Henry Ellis Haley, Velma Lee Martin,

Sessions, Mrs. Bufa Pritchett, A.

CAGE GAMES BEGAN
THURSDAY NIGHT AT
STATE HOME COURT
BARRY, POWELL, BLOOMING GROVE AND FROST TO BE CONTESTANTS

By CLYDE HICKERSTAFF

Sun Sports Staff

Four teams were certified to play in district 34-B championship basketball tournament playoff at the State Home here Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, Feb.
19-21, at a meeting of coaches and school officials Monday night at the YMCA. Jack W. Poff, district chairman and principal of the Kerens high school, presided.

The four teams include the bracket winners as well as runner-ups in each. Blooming Grove was declared champion of bracket A with Frost as runner-up while Barry was certified as titlist in bracket B with Powell as runner-up.

The district winner will participate in the regional tournament which is scheduled to be held at Denton, Feb. 27-28.

The University of Texas Interscholastic League tournaments held each year in connection with literary and sports events were considered by a special session of the executive committee of this county. Melvin Taylor, director general and superintendent of the Emhouse schools, presided.

Literary Meet Soon
The literary contests together with tennis competition was scheduled for March 21, while track, field, and volleyball meets were slated for March 28. Literary events will be conducted at the Corsicana high school while tennis will be played on the Corsicana city park courts. The State Home will be host to the sport contests.

Director Taylor set March 11 as a deadline for paying or fees and listing of participants.

The annual girls basketball tournament, sponsored each year by the executive committee, was set for Thursday, Friday and Saturday, March 5-7, at Blooming Grove. All county schools holding membership in the interscholastic League are eligible to participate.

In another part of the meeting, C. T. Warrington, Blooming Grove coach, was appointed athletic director, succeeding J. H. Lanier, resigned.

Playground Ball in April
The annual playground ball series was set for April 18, at Em-house. In an effort to complete competition in one day, the executive committee voted to waive the rule which prohibits any team from playing more than two games in one day. This in effect requires the teams to play more than two games if necessary or forfeit the entire contest. The committee also voted to eliminate grammar school tennis due to the small number of entries each year.

Pairings of teams participating in the district playoff are listed as follows:
Thursday night—8 p.m.—Blooming Grove vs. Frost. Powell vs.

Nearly Two Million Acres Restocked With Wild Game in Texas

AUSTIN, Feb. 19.—(AP)—Approximately 1,800,000 acres of Texas land soon will have been restocked with deer, turkey, antelope and beaver.

The results from the game department's trapping and restocking program performed in cooperation with land owners who permit game to be snared in harmless traps and redistributed to less popular areas.

The deer and antelope program is about completed and results have exceeded expectations in both divisions, said Will Tucker, executive secretary of the game, fish and oyster commission.

More than 1,200 deer have been caught and released anew, doubling last year's take a total of 611 antelope were caught and transplanted.

Turkey trapping is still under way. The men who lure the birds into traps have chalked up 300 captives and have 200 to go to attain their goal.

The beaver trapping program is still in the planning stage and trappers have set their sights higher than last year's bag of 88.

Pioneer Literary Club of Kerens In Interesting Session

Members of the Kerens Pioneer Literary Club enjoyed a highly interesting meeting on Feb. 13 at the home of Mrs. Cleo Owen with Mrs. J. C. Blair co-hostess.

The reception suite was charmingly homelike the attractive with its sun parlor filled with overlying with various plants, flowers and vines, testifying to the skilled hands of the owner.

St. Valentine's Day was heralded in a beautiful floral heart-shaped arrangement which graced the table in the dining room, augmented by dainty pink tapers in crystal holders. Other spring blossom groups in the living room completed the decorative note.

Mrs. Charles C. Cherry, Jr., club president, conducted a short business session. Roll call was answered with "My favorite magazine and why?" and the topic of the day was "Holland's Magazine, Our Own Southern Production."

Mrs. H. J. Newsome was a capable leader and reminded fellow members of the notation in the yearbook for the day "Where is creative reading as well as creative thinking," as she introduced the short story of her choice, "Here Comes the Bride," taken from a recent issue of the magazine.

Light, airy and entertaining, the story as unfolded by Mrs. Newsome in pensive monologue, held the rapt attention of all, and won for the clever speaker, well deserved and hearty applause.

Gardening tips from one of the club's most ardent enthusiasts were timely and well-presented by Mrs. H. A. Quatte. Concluding the well-rounded program, Mrs. M. L. Speed read several selections from "Texas," beginning with one from the pen of Etta Baldwin Oldham, former Kerens resident. The poem, "Just Blue" touched the heart with its poignant beauty and the simplicity of faith in which the writer talked to God.

JOHN DEERE HAS 105TH ANNIVERSARY

The Corsicana Tractor Co., at 102 W. Third, carries a complete line of John Deere tractors and farm implements which are products of one of the nation's oldest and largest implement manufacturers.

At one anvil in a little frontier blacksmith shop in 1837, John Deere built the world's first steel plows. They solved one of the most serious problems of pioneers clearing out farms in the great agricultural region of America.

From the three plows made by John Deere at a single forge in 1837 to the many thousands of plows and kindred tools now made by the John Deere Plow Co., in a single year is a stupendous jump; yet it was made and the little blacksmith shop soon became a great plow factory, eventually the largest steel plow factory in the world.

Around this factory there grew a group of fifteen other factories each devoted to the manufacture of a particular class of implements to stand with John Deere plows in forming the John Deere full line.

The John Deere Plow Company's

constant endeavor has been to make John Deere farm equipment so good that its first cost is soon repaid in extra service given. Now on their 105th anniversary we find that each of these implements has worked its way to popularity on farms all over the world and they now include a wide variety of farm machinery.

The Corsicana Tractor Co., for example, can supply you with tractor and farm implements for every need. An example is the Letz feed mill, which is an individual feed mill for the farm which grinds any kind of farm feed, and is a combine snailage cutter and also filler.

They also carry all John Deere parts and maintain a completely equipped service department in which they can care for every service need of John Deere tractor owners.

The business policy of this firm is one of courtesy and convenience to their patrons—in fact their sincere function is to serve you in such a way as to make a lasting friend of you, and they express thanks for your past business and invite your continued patronage.

Your Scrap Metal Is Now Needed For Victory

A critical shortage of scrap metal now exists in United States war industry. Unless more scrap is forthcoming at once, war production will slow down and months, even years will be added to this fearful battle.

It is of utmost importance that every pound of scrap metal on your farm start moving now toward America's steel mills and foundries to make more war material.

It requires 500 pounds of scrap metal to make one 2,000 lb. bomb; 50 pounds for one machine gun, 1,000 pounds for a 75-mm. Howitzer; half a ton for a 16-inch naval shell; 18 tons for a medium tank; nine thousand tons for one battleship and two tons for one anti-aircraft gun.

Many of you have enough scrap iron about your farms to make some of these armaments mentioned and it is your patriotic duty to gather up every piece that isn't usable and bring it immediately to some junk dealer that it may reach our mills at the earliest possible time.

If you will gather this scrap into piles and drop us a card, stating about how much you have, we will arrange for some truck to call for it, provided you have no way of transporting it to market. Our store collects this information and passes it along as a patriotic service without commission or profit of any kind. Our work in this campaign and the cost of this advertising is one of our contributions to victory.

HEALTH, BEAUTY AND POISE

HOW TO IMPROVE YOUR PERSONALITY
By VERONICA DENGEL

SUGAR SUBSTITUTES

At first thought, the American woman is a bit upset when she learns that she can't have all she wants of any one thing—then she quickly adjusts herself to the inevitable, and finds that she didn't need it anyway—so what.

This is true of the present sugar rationing. Certainly it is going to be good for those who like sugar to have to ration it down on their total intake—good for the figure, the complexion, and the health. A small amount of carbohydrate is necessary for energy and heat—but the excess is stored, and when this storage is not continually drawn upon, nice fatty pads result. Just watch what happens by eliminating those extra sweets alone, and you will prove this.

We could do without sugar entirely if we had to—and be better off for it actually. There are many satisfactory and more healthful substitutes. Honey is the first and most valuable. Honey is very sweet, not fattening (because too much is seldom taken) and it has vitamins and minerals that are absent in sugar. It is easily digested and assimilated—and is a marvelous source of quick energy. That is why honey is the perfect food for the underweight person to take a teaspoonful of honey in some warm water as a mid-morning or mid-afternoon pick-up.

Then we have bananas, figs, dates and raisins, which supply valuable fruit sugar, and also are a means of acquiring quick energy. Added to cereals, they are delicious; dates or raisins in muffins are an old-time favorite; and have you ever tried baked bananas? Here is the way we sometimes serve them:

Remove the skin from a banana and wrap in a strip of bacon securing it with toothpicks. Bake in the oven until the bacon is almost cooked—then place under the broiler to crisp the bacon just a couple of minutes. Serve it as a main course with a salad and one or two vegetables. Grand for Sunday night suppers—and for luncheon, too.

Give your children two or three figs in the afternoon when they come in from school—no fat superior as a snack than bread and butter sprinkled with sugar! And raisins can be covered with hot water and allowed to puff up, and then served with cream for breakfast—or as dessert—they make a good addition to the necessary iron in the blood.

So there—a little ingenuity, and you won't even miss sugar. Even your coffee will improve in taste after a few days of getting used to it—if you will use it without sugar, and even without cream. Later, if you find that you are all over fussy, we shall just accept all necessary curtailments as they come, because they are all aimed at the good of the nation—and for this task we shall do without far more in luxuries—willingly and gladly.

Brown, private, first class, 317-A South Cuyler; post: Fletcher Marvin Hagwood, corporal; Powderly: Rev. Noble Frederick, first musician first class.

Marine corps personnel who were at Peiping, China:

lled naval base at Darwin; and in the battle of Burma, Tokyo dispatches asserted that Japanese troops had advanced with seventy-five air-line miles of Rangoon.
Rangoon, the Burmese capital, is the chief port of entry for war supplies to China.

In the Dutch Indies, a bulletin from N. E. I. headquarters said, Dutch troops were still battling fiercely against Japanese invasion forces in the great oil center of Palembang, in lower Sumatra.

New Jap Air Raids.
The Dutch command said Rising Sun planes raided an air field in Western Java today, causing "some damage," following up yesterday's twenty-four-plane attack on the big allied naval base at Soerabaya in Eastern Java.

The aerial assault on Darwin, perhaps signalling a new invasion attempt by Japan's far-flung aviation, lasted an hour.
In the Philippines, a bulletin from Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters reported increasing Japanese pressure against American-Filipino defense lines on the Bataan Peninsula and said that troop movements indicated a resumption of the enemy offensive.

The communiqué said several Japanese dive bombers were captured, along with artillery and other equipment.

Gen. MacArthur reported heavy attacks on the defenders' right flank and violent artillery fire as the campaign in defense of the last tragic phase.

British Exchange Telegraph news agency dispatches said Japanese planes returned for a second attack on Darwin this afternoon, inflicting considerable property damage.

The agency quoted Australia's Prime Minister John Curtin as announcing that seventy-two Rising Sun bombers, escorted by fighters, fired five times in defense of the Bataan Peninsula and said that twenty-one bombers in the second.

Explosives were dropped both on the town itself and shipping in the harbor, an Australian communiqué said, and "there were some casualties and damage to service instalations."

A heartening report for the allies came from the battle of Burma in a declaration that Chinese troops had defeated Thai allies of Japan in fierce fighting along the Burma-Thailand frontier and seized a considerable quantity of war supplies.

This report was contained in a special dispatch to the Catholic newspaper, the Sincere, from the Chungking and evidently referred to a northern combat zone through which the Chinese were declared officially yesterday to have driven a spearhead into Thailand.

Changing tactics that new U.
S. bombers and fighters had been based in Burma raised allied hopes of a successful challenge to the Japanese air force and any landing parties that might attempt to outflank the defenders.

Domel, Japanese news agency, declared, however, that invasion troops had occupied Bilin, a town on the Rangoon-Martaban rail-line seventy-five miles by air from Rangoon, the Burmese capital, and the threat to the railway supply route of the Burma Road—Chinese munitions line—was obvious.

Occupied zones of New Guinea or Celebes, equatorial islands each less than 1,000 miles away, probably provided the springboard for the assault by Rising Sun planes on Darwin, Humid and Monsoon-based port of the United States Sea at the center of the north coast.

By a combination of two railway lines and a new 600-mile highway, Darwin is linked across more than 2,000 miles of desert with the southeastern industrial area and three major cities of the commonwealth, Sydney, Melbourne and Adelaide. The sea route to South Australia is 3,000 miles.

Strategically it provides a base coastlines from the Pacific to the Indian Ocean and is a prospective jump-off site for a United Nations drive against Japan, who have seized victory along a chain of Dutch and Australian islands lying as close as 100 miles from the mainland at Cape York.

The Japanese declared their naval planes had sunk a United Nations destroyer, forced another ground and bombed two merchant ships this week in the Java Sea north of Batavia, Netherlands East Indies capital menaced by invasion from the Pacific to the

In the eight days through Tuesday, a Tokyo broadcast said, Japanese airmen shot down thirty-two planes over Sumatra.

CATTLE THEFT CASE
Reported Cleared

County officers Thursday said that the theft of two head of cattle, one from R. H. Witherspoon of the Chatfield community and the other from a Mexican tenant on the Witherspoon farm, had been cleared up and the money for the cattle had been given the owners.

Two negroes have been arrested and charged with cattle theft in the case. Sheriff Cap Currington said the negroes had carried the cattle to Fort Worth, sold them to an outside buyer, who in turn had sold to a commission house, and later the two cattle were butchered at a pack-house. The thefts occurred early last week.

Officers revealed one of the accused negroes was arrested in Navarro county and the other in Dallas.

During the investigations, three trips to Fort Worth were made, one to Dallas and several trips to Chatfield. After an automobile had been traced to a muddy road near Chatfield, officers said, they borrowed horses and rode, seven miles further into the Trinity river bottoms where evidence was procured as to the whereabouts of one of the negroes.

PRODUCTION CREDIT GROWS RAPIDLY

Organized in 1934, the Corsicana Production Credit Association at 120 W. Fifth, is one in the group of hundreds of similar associations which blanket the nation and provide the stockholder with farmers with adequate funds to operate on a cash basis. They serve Navarro, Hill and Ellis counties, with field offices at Ennis, Hillsboro, and Waxahatche and Kerens.

On September 12, 1933, a group of 30 farmers met at Champaign, Illinois, to organize the first Production Credit Association, which was a cooperative organization of ranch and farmer borrowers which was operated at cost for the benefit of its members. Its primary function was to provide a permit to borrow money, which would enable them to take advantage of discounts available through cash buying. Its success was immediate and now nearly nine million after the first association was organized there are 525 similar associations which in this period have made over 1,500,000 loans, totaling over $1,500,000,000 to the 500,000 ranchers and farmers who are members and stockholders of these 525 different units.

The Corsicana Production Credit Association is one of these 525 units. Organized in 1934, they have made 3140 loans to their 835 members totaling $2,739,705 in this action.

The value of this source of credit to its borrowers is obvious. Surveys made by agricultural production in several states show that ranchers and farmers are paying an interest charges each year by buying on credit or on the installment plan. These farmers and ranchers can save from one-half to seven-eighths of their interest costs by borrowing from their Production Credit Association. Using the money to pay cash, interest rates are 4 1/2 per cent and they make renewals every 12 months. So unless you are buying all your goods from your Production Credit Association you are missing an opportunity to save money.

of the organized reserves, which since their demobilization after the first world war have existed only in skeleton form.
The 77th, made famous in 1918 by the capture of the "Lost Battalion," will be assembled and trained at Fort Jackson, S. C., with Major General Robert I. Eichelberger commanding.

The 82nd division, which in the World War included Sergeant Alvin York, will train at Camp Claiborne, La. Major General Omar
B. Bradley was assigned to command it.

The 90th division will train at Fort Huachuca, Texas, and be commanded by Major General Henry Terrell, Jr. It was known as the "Alamo Division," in 1917-18 because its members came from Texas and Oklahoma.

The three new divisions that the National Guard's 18 large square divisions would be reorganized into smaller, streamlined, triangular divisions, to conform with other such units of the armed forces.
The first of the new divisions ordered into service are the first of 27 reserve divisions to be called out in expanding the army this year to 3,600,000 men.

The Philippines will form the first infantry battalion, and will be stationed at Camp San Luis Obispo, Calif. The new unit, Stimson said, was "formed in recognition of the intense loyalty and patriotism of the Philippine people in the fighting in the United States," and will give them "the eventual opportunity of fighting on the soil of their homeland."

A similar battalion, he said, may be formed from citizens of the United States in this country.
He said it was conceivable that the volunteers came forward in sufficiently large numbers that an allied legion might be formed.

In connection with his warnings of possible raids on American coasts, Stimson recalled demands in both 1898 and 1911 to scatter defensive forces to meet threatened hostile attacks.

Stimson said there was a "terrific howl" for defensive measures against Spanish Admiral Cervera's force of four cruisers which was reported at large in the Atlantic, although American naval forces were nearby.

In 1911, when Mexico was in turmoil, Stimson said a new senator from Texas introduced a resolution to distribute available United States forces along the border, although he said these would allow for only two soldiers per mile.

"We are on the front lines ourselves now," Stimson said. "We can't buy our way out. We can't buy our way out. We can't buy our way out by hard, intelligent fighting."

The war secretary said that he expected many plans would be forthcoming as in the past, resulting in a defense of measures and explained that the principle of keeping forces intact for the offense would not be made.

Stimson said he had not seen a plan for defense of the Gulf of Mexico, Detroit and the Soo Locks in Michigan, made by Governor Murray Van Wagoner to President Roosevelt, and referred by the White house to the war department.

they force that bulwark they will have opened up a water-way to India and Burma.
The question of whether Java can be held depends on whether the reinforcements to the army there in time, and the Dutch are looking to Uncle Sam for this help.
What is needed is a large fleet of warplanes of all categories, especially fighter planes to stand off the Japanese bombers which have been causing such havoc. As has been emphasized before, a great part of the grief which has come to the allies in the southwest Pacific has been due to their lack of air power.

America Holds Answer.
If America is in position to get planes to Java in time, the island may be saved. Without planes there is small hope. Only the allied war planes know whether (1) we have the planes to spare and whether (2) if we do have the planes we have the facilities to get them to the scene of the conflict in time.

So far as Sumatra is concerned, there seems small hope of that being held, although the defenders are doing yeoman work.

Possession of this island, which lies across the Java Sea, would be a tremendous asset to the aggressors in making their final assault.

The Japanese bombing of the Northern Australian port of Darwin today, representing an effort to prevent that base being used to aid Java.

The Japanese drive against Burma has continued to make progress, and they are getting dangerously close to the Rangoon-Burma railway which feeds the Burma Road to China. The loss of Burma would have far-reaching consequences, not only because it might result in China being isolated, but because it would leave the Japs sitting on the doorstep of mighty India.

We are told that there are alternative supply routes into China, but it's my understanding that, while several routes have been developed, none of them is yet ready.
In other words, the Burma road would seem to be the only feasible line to the outside world. The cutting of her war supplies would be a disaster.

The British are evacuating civilians from Rangoon, and that doesn't look like a hopeful sign from this distance. Of course, it doesn't necessarily mean that they don't expect to hold this port, but at least it would seem to indicate a lack of air power with which to defend the city from Japanese bombers.

give the dictators," Mrs. Murrill asserted. "But we are going to answer them in other ways, too, particularly by buying defense bonds and stamps and by taking home nursing courses."

The army, said Lieut. Col. W.
Steffen of the Dallas recruiting staff, wants 18- and 19-year-old boys to be sent to the army, and they must be physically fit and have adaptability and because of the reservoir of fit military material they would provide the armed services.

Enlistment, he added, would not only be a measure of patriotism on the part of the boys, but also one of intelligent self-interest. He pointed out that young men, becoming toughened, efficient soldiers, will very likely get good salaries before they are discharged, and that the army offers many highly specialized courses of study which are not available in civilian life.

ELECTION JUDGES APPOINTED TUESDAY BY COMMISSIONERS

CHANGES ANNOUNCED IN ENDORSEMENT OF HEALTH UNIT BY PHYSICIANS

Appointment of election judges in three precincts, a report on the recent voting by members of the Navajo county medical society on the proposed county health unit and notice from H. A. Drane that he would request on March 9 the closing of the Martindale Lane northwest of Corsicana highlighted the session of the commissioners' court Tuesday morning.

Commissioner Drew Gillen of Blooming Grove was not present Tuesday morning because he was in Federal Court in Dallas.

Dr. S. H. Burnett, member of the medical society committee to make a poll of the members with reference to the proposed county health unit, reported that there were 11 votes for the measure and eight against it, with three of those voting endorsement on the same ballot voted against the establishment of a unit at the present time due to the financial conditions making the vote 11-8 against immediate establishment.

Other members of the canvassing committee were Drs. J. Wilson Davidson and Will Miller. Dr. Burnett brought the ballots to the court and exhibited them. Dr. Burnett said the committee had announced the society had voted for the project before taking into consideration the three qualified ballots. The ballots had for or against the proposition and then whether endorsement for present time or not. It was 11-8 on the top ballot for the proposition and 11-8 against on the bottom question.

Drane several weeks ago began closing the Martindale Lane in preparation for the construction of a large emergency airfield on his premises for use of warplanes. He is a high official of the civilian

Powell Panthers Staged Comeback In Cage Campaign

POWELL, Feb. 19.—(Spl.)—

After a poor start, the Powell High School basketball team staged a comeback during the present season and earned the right to compete in the tournament at the State Home this week-end.

The Powell combination scored only three points in the opening game of the season and then lost the first four games. Flashing a reversal of form, the quintet won 13 of the 14 remaining games on the schedule and finished the district race with ten wins and two losses.

Bernard Simmons is the only senior on the squad and is 6 feet 3 inches tall. Other starters are juniors—Alvin O'Neal and Edgar Carl Johnston. Kenneth Ray and Bruce Christman, guards, Simmons is center.

Neal and Ray are co-captains. Simmons is the team's leading scorer. Other players include William McKinley, Roy Johnston, Elmer Griffin and John Kenner.

air defense organization and announced he was constructing the field at his own expense. Property owners in that area immediately petitioned the court to keep the road open and it is understood the county rebuilt a bridge that had been removed in the work.

Few changes in election judges were made in Precincts 1, 2 and 3 at Tuesday's session.

Machinery bids were opened at Tuesday afternoon's session of the commissioners' court but action was deferred to a later meeting.

The application of Homer E. Pace, constable, for the appointment of T. J. Roe as deputy at a salary of $100 per month was granted. Roe was deputy under Wm. E. Lee, recently resigned.

The request made recently by Dr. W. W. Carter, county health officer, for an increase in salary from $75 to $100 per month was denied.

COMMITTEE NAMED TO INVESTIGATE AND MAKE REPORT

RAY L. WALLER OF DAWSON ELECTED DISTRICT 21-B DISTRICT CHAIRMAN

By PAUL MOORE Sun Sports Editor

State Home of Corsicana applied for membership in District 21-B at a meeting of the executive committee here Wednesday night at the YMCA, and officers for 1942 were elected. The executive committee voted that a committee investigate the application of the Lads and report back at a meeting to be held here Wednesday night, March 4.

Ray L. Waller, superintendent of the Dawson schools, was elected chairman of the district committee, succeeding R. L. Nolen, formerly superintendent of the Trinity Schools. Nolen resigned his position at Trinity a few weeks ago to accept a post in the Highland Park Hotel.

R. Yeager, new superintendent of Trinity, called the meeting and was chairman Wednesday night. Gaston T. Gooch, principal of the Dawson High School, was elected secretary of the executive committee, a post he has formerly occupied.

The committee voted to divide the district according to enrollment as was the case in 1941. Kerens won one bracket last fall and then was defeated by the Frost Polar Bears for the district championship and copped bi-district honors.

A motion was passed that the bracket championships be determined not later than Nov. 13, and that if the two contesting teams could not agree on a site, the titular melee will be staged in Corsicana.

The secretary was instructed to write a letter of thanks and appreciation to former Chairman Nolen.

Members of the committee stated they were pleased with the manner in which the district had conducted football campaigns, and said it was a compliment to the sportsmanship of the schools that no protests were lodged during the 1941 season.

State Home Request

R. E. Blair and Chas. A. Zunker of the State Home faculty presented the application of the State Home for admittance to the district, pointing out there were only 198 students in the Home High School last September and only 149 at the present time, with more girls enrolled than boys. After a motion to admit the Home had been made, a tabling motion was carried for the appointment of a committee on the matter to report back at the March 4 session. The chair appointed Chairman Waller, L. L. Wilkes, superintendent of Hubbard, and G. H. Wilemon, superintendent at Kerens, on the State Home admission committee.

Those attending included: Italy, W. B. Barnhairs; Frost, W. T. Davis; Blooming Grove, C. T. Warrington; Kerens, G. H. Wilemon; and Byrnes, W. L. Hubbard, L. L. Wilkes, Mildred, H. A. Garland; Milford, F. M. Kelsey and R. E. Elder; Trinity, J. R. Yeager, W. A. Wilson and R. D. Scott. Dawson, the ninth member of the district, was not represented.

Schedules for the 1942 campaign and other matters will be considered at the March 4 meeting.

BURROSS HATCHERY OFFERS SUPERIOR CHICKS

The Burross Hatchery at 210 S. Main in Corsicana, offers high quality chicks from culled, blood-tested and inspected flocks.

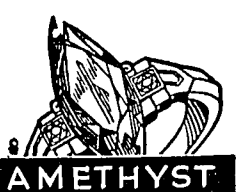

As a result of constant urging by county farm agents and our National Department of Agriculture during the past 15 years, many farmers all over the United States have turned to poultry raising in a small way as a sure means of producing a steady income. Crop failures and the uncertainty of markets has caused many a one-crop farmer to fall back on poultry production as a sideline to insure against complete lack of income in bad years. That their judgment has been good is shown by the fact that all farm products, poultry and eggs showed the smallest decrease in price during the depression and they made the quickest comeback.

To the commercial hatcheries such as the Burross Hatchery, goes much of the credit for this increase in poultry production, as well as flock improvement, which has transpired in the past few years. They encouraged, and in some cases introduced, culling, blood-testing, standard breeding balanced feeding and proper care into what had been a haphazard industry with most farmers in the past. By paying a premium price for hatching eggs of a desirable kind they have made it pay the farmer to do these things and caused poultry production to become one of the most specialized industries in the average farmer's business.

Originally established in 1933, the Burross Hatchery is in its 9th year of service to poultrymen in this section. They pay a premium price for desirable hatching eggs and with their hatching capacity of 81,000 eggs they will pay growers hundreds of dollars in the form of premiums over and above the market price in the course of a hatching season. The Hatchery is one of the very latest types, nothing is left to guess work as the complete machine is automatically controlled.

The Burross Hatchery invites farmers and poultrymen to call, write or visit them for information regarding the quality and breeding of their chicks or any other information you may desire.
